3

This animal lives in water and eats fish, but it isn't a fish. It's usually blue-grey and can be up to 2.5 metres long. It can swim at 45 kilometres an hour, and it can jump six metres out of the water. It's very intelligent and it can 'talk'— it can make more than 30 different sounds!

Life in Ancient Times!

LIFE IN ANCIENT TIMES

The people in ancient Kurdistan enjoyed their free time very much. They had more than six holidays every month. What did they like doing?

1 Hunting

The kings were famous hunters. They hunted African lions, elephants, wild bulls and other animals. The kings were very brave and liked hunting large, fierce animals.

In a lion hunt, dogs chased the lions towards the king. He was in his chariot, and killed the lions with a bow or a spear.

2 Sports and Toys

Sports were very popular. Men and boys liked wrestling and boxing. The children loved playing with toys. Today some children play with toy guns. But in ancient times, people didn't have guns, so the children played with toy bows and arrows. And they had miniature chariots and boats. They also played children's sports – running and jumping games. Just like today's World Youth Games!

3 Music and Dancing

Music and dancing were popular too. There were always singers (male and female) and musicians at their festivals. There were many different types of musical instrument – some were different to today's instruments, but some were almost the same. They often danced with the music. Women usually danced in a circle.

4 Food

These people loved their food. The kings liked eating enormous meals. King Assurnasirpal prepared a meal of 2,000 cows, 25,000 sheep, 15,000 lambs and many other animals and birds. There were also 1,000 large boxes of vegetables! There were 47,074 people at the meal and the eating lasted for 10 days!

Tonight I watched you on TV

_____

This time you looked at me

_____

Tonight you listened to my song

_____

You didn't say the words were wrong

So

Now I can talk to the TV

Yes, the video listens to me

I can sing to my cassette

I'm not alone with just my pet

Because tonight I watched you on TV

And you talked and listened to me!

Listen and check.
